AT the Court of St. James's, the 11th Day of September, 1761,

PRESENT,

The KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majeſty was graciouſly pleaſed by His Royal Proclamation bearing Date the Twenty Second Day of July laſt, to promiſe and declare, (amongſt otherThings) That the Bounties of Five Pounds for every able Seaman, and of Thirty Shillings for every ordinary Seaman ſhould be paid to every ſuch able and ordinary Seaman, not above the Age of Fifty, nor under the Age of Twenty Years, who ſhould, on or before the Twelfth of this Inſtant, enter themſelves to ſerve in His Majeſty's Royal Navy, either with the Captains or Lieutenants of His Majeſty's Ships, or the Chief Officers on Board ſuch Tenders as ſhould be employed for raiſing Men for the Service of the Royal Navy: And that a Bounty of Thirty Shillings ſhould be paid to every able bodied Landman not above the Age of Thirty Five, nor under the Age of Twenty Years, who ſhould, on or before the ſaid Twelfth Day of this Inſtant, in like Manner voluntarily enter themſelves to ſerve in His Majeſty's Royal Navy; and that a Reward of Two Pounds for every able, and Thirty Shillings for every ordinary Seaman, ſhould be paid to any Perſon who ſhould diſcover any Seaman or Seamen who ſhould ſecret themſelves, ſo that ſuch Seaman or Seamen ſhould be taken for His Majeſty's ſaid Service. And whereas the Time limited for paying the ſaid Bounties and Rewards is now near expiring: And it being judged expedient for His Majeſty's Service, that the ſame ſhould be continued for ſome longer Time; His Majeſty, with the Advice of His Privy Council, doth therefore order, and it is hereby accordingly ordered, that the Time limited by the ſaid Proclamation, for Payment of the ſaid Bounties and Rewards, be prolonged and extended from the ſaid Twelfth Day of this Inſtant September, to the Thirty-firſt Day of October next incluſive. Whereof all Perſons concerned are to take Notice, and govern themſelves accordingly.

W. Blair.

Omitted in the laſt Gazette, after the Addreſs of the Univerſity of Cambridge to the King;

They were received moſt graciouſly, and had all the Honour to kiſs His Majeſty's Hand.

After the Addreſs to the Queen;

They were received moſt graciouſly, and had all the Honour to kiſs Her Majeſty's Hand.

After the Addreſs to the Princeſs of Wales;

They were received moſt graciouſly, and had all the Honour to kiſs her Royal Highneſs's Hand.

St. James's, September 16.

THIS Day the following humble Addreſs of Congratulation to His Majeſty, on His auſpicious Nuptials, from the Univerſity of Oxford, was preſented by the Right Honourable the Earl of Weſtmorland, Chancellor; accompanied by the Earl of Litchfield, High Steward; the Reverend Dr. Brown, Vice-Chancellor; his Grace the Archbiſhop of Canterbury; the Lord High Chancellor; the Lord Steward of the Houſehold; and the following Noblemen and Biſhops, who had been formerly, or are at preſent, Members of the ſaid Univerſity, viz. His Grace the Duke of Queensberry; the Earls of Northampton, Angleſey, Shaftesbury, Coventry, Oxford, Dartmouth, Macclesfield, Bath, Gower, Northumberland, Egremont, and Shelburne; Lords Charles Spencer, and Greville Montagu; Viſcounts Say and Sele, Folkeſtone, Wenman, Parker, Dungarvon; the Biſhops of Wincheſter, Hereford, Salisbury, Norwich, Worceſter, and Bangor; Lords Willoughby de Broke, Wentworth, Foley, Middleſex, Mansfield, and Scarſdale; together with many of the Younger Sons of the Nobility; a great Number of Baronets and Members of Parliament; Seventeen Heads of Colleges and Halls; ſeveral of the Public Profeſſors; about Seventy Doctors in Divinity, Phyſic, and Law; the two Proctors; and an Hundred and Forty Nine Maſters of Arts, and Batchelors of Phyſic, and Civil Law, in their proper Academical Habits.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Chancellor, Maſters and Scholars of your Univerſity of Oxford, zealouſly attached to your Royal Perſon and Government, and ſenſibly affected with every Occurrence, tending to the Increaſe of your Majeſty's Glory and Happineſs, beg Leave to expreſs our unfeigned Joy on the much-wiſh'd-for Occaſion of your Majeſty's Marriage with a Proteſtant Princeſs; a Princeſs illuſtrious by Deſcent, and ſtill more diſtinguiſhed by ſuch perſonal Accompliſhments, and ſuch amiable Virtues, as are truly worthy of a Britiſh Crown.

With the utmoſt Satisfaction we reflect, that your Sacred Majeſty, ever ſince your happy Acceſſion to the Throne of theſe Kingdoms, hath fully anſwered the moſt ſanguine Hopes and Expectations of all your loving Subjects; and nothing ſeemed wanting to fill up the Meaſure of their Felicity, but the Proſpect of Stability and Perpetuity to the Bleſſings they enjoy.

The preſent Occaſion affords us this pleaſing Proſpect, and abundant Matter of the juſteſt Exultation. We are now led to carry our Views to future Ages; and rejoice to conſider the Intereſt of lateſt Poſterity, under the Bleſſing of God, happily ſecured by this important Event.

It is therefore our ardent Wiſh, and daily Prayer, that there never may be wanting a Race of Princes, deſcended from your Majeſty and Royal Conſort, worthy their auguſt Parentage, and inheriting all thoſe excellent Endowments, which eſtabliſh and adorn your Throne: Favourers of Learning and Merit; Friends to Liberty both Civil and Religious, making the Glory of God the End of their Government, and laying the Foundation of their own Greatneſs in the Happineſs and Affection of their Subjects; always recommending to them and enforcing the ſacred Obligations of Virtue and Religion, by, That moſt moſt engaging of all human Sanctions, the Royal Countenance and Example.

Given at our Houſe of Convocation this Ninth Day of September, in the Year of our Lord, One Thouſand Seven Hundred and Sixty One.

To which His Majeſty was pleaſed to give the following moſt gracious Anſwer,

I Return you My Hearty Thanks for this Proof of Duty and Affection to My Perſon: And I take a very ſenſible Satisfaction in ſuch a cordial Teſtimony of Joy from My Univerſity of Oxford, on an Event ſo truly happy to Me. That ancient and famous Seat of Learning may depend on My Protection and Favour, and may be aſſured of my kind Acceptance of their Exemplary Care to form My youthful Subjects to a due Reverence for the Laws, and to a juſt Senſe of This Excellent Conſtitution, by enforcing Moral, Civil, and Religious Diſcipline.

They were moſt graciouſly received, and had the Honour of kiſſing His Majeſty's Hand.

Immediately after they were introduced to Her Majeſty by his Grace the Duke of Mancheſter, Her High Chamberlain; when the Chancellor made the Compliments of the Univerſity to the Queen in the following Speech.

To the Queen.

Madam,

I Have the Honour, in the Name of the Univerſity of Oxford, to approach your Royal Preſence, with an humble Offering to your Majeſty of their moſt faithful Duty and Homage; welcoming your Majeſty's ſafe Arrival in theſe Kingdoms, and felicitating your Marriage with our moſt Gracious Sovereign.

On this Auſpicious Occaſion, His Majeſty hath given the ſtrongeſt Demonſtration of His Zeal for the Publick Welfare, by reſolving to place the Imperial Crown of Great Britain on the Head of a Proteſtant Princeſs, whoſe Perſonal Merits, ſuperior to her Illuſtrious Birth, will give an additional Luſtre to the Diadem ſhe wears. It is, indeed, a Circumſtance peculiarly glorious to your Majeſty, that the elevated Station to which you are called, is owing ſolely to your own Royal Accompliſhments, and to our Auguſt Monarch's juſt Diſcernment and Eſtimation of them, who is proud of laying His Honours and His Lawrels at your Majeſty's Feet; and of ſharing with you, what he valueth more than a Crown, the unbounded Love and Affection of all His Subjects.

Your Royal Conſort's acknowledged Virtue and Goodneſs, joined to thoſe Excellent Qualities, with which Nature and Education have ſo liberally adorned your Majeſty, afford the faireſt and moſt certain Proſpect of Domeſtick Happineſs. Our Prayers ſhall be daily offered for an uninterrupted Continuance of it; and that the Royal Pair may long live to ſet forth the brigheſt Pattern, and alſo reap the bleſſed Fruits and Effects of Conjugal Affection.

To which Her Majeſty was pleaſed to return the following moſt Gracious Anſwer.

I Return you My Thanks for theſe affectionate Congratulations, ſo very flattering to Me; and I aſſure you, that an Addreſs, ſo full of Duty to the King, gives Me the greateſt Pleaſure.

They were received in a moſt gracious Manner, and had all the Honour of kiſſing Her Majeſty's Hand.

Leiceſter Houſe, September 16.

This Day the Univerſity of Oxford, attended by their Chancellor, High Steward, the Nobility, Biſhops, and Gentlemen, who before had waited on their Majeſties, were introduced to Her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs Dowager of Wales, by the Lord Boſton Her Chamberlain; when the Chancellor paid the Compliments of the Univerſity in the following Speech.

To her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs Dowager of Wales.

May it pleaſe your Royal Highneſs,

TO accept the ſincereſt Congratulations of your moſt faithful and loyal Univerſity of Oxford, on the happy Occaſion of His Majeſty's Marriage with the Illuſtrious Princeſs of Mecklenburg Strelitz; a Princeſs, whoſe ſingular Virtues and Endowments have recommended Her to the Affections of the moſt amiable and beſt of Kings; who, from Parental Examples, and the particular Influence of your Royal Highneſs's Care and Inſpection, is equally formed for Publick Government, and Domeſtick Happineſs.

We cannot omit any Opportunity of gratefully acknowledging that benevolent Diſpoſition, which your Royal Highneſs hath ever ſhewed towards your ancient Univerſity: And our hearty Prayers and Wiſhes are, that your Royal Highneſs may long live and enjoy that truly deſireable Felicity — of ſeeing your Children's Children, and Peace upon Iſrael.

To which her Royal Highneſs was pleaſed to return the following Anſwer.

I Return you my Thanks for your kind Congratulations: The Affection you expreſs on this Joyful Occaſion, ſtill adds to the Happineſs I feel.

They were received very graciouſly, and had the Honour to kiſs her Royal Highneſs's Hand.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty of the City of Oxford, in the County of Oxford, has been preſented to His Majeſty by Sir James Daſhwood, Bart. High Steward of the City of Oxford, being introduced by the Lord of the Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty of the City of Oxford, in the County of Oxford, in Common Council aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

MAY it pleaſe your Majeſty to accept, amidſt the univerſal Joy of your People, the Congratulations of the Mayor and Corporation of Oxford, on the Concluſion of your Royal Nuptials; an Event which demands the warmeſt Expreſſions of our Affection to your Perſon, the moſt ardent Zeal of our Prayers, That Heaven may crown them with its choiceſt Favours. The many Virtues which adorn your auſpicious Reign, had raiſed your Fortunate People even beyond the Power of wiſhing for any future Bleſſing, than an Union with a Princeſs, whoſe Great and Amiable Qualities might (under Heaven) perpetuate their Felicity; an Union, now ſo happily accompliſhed, that we ſhould be wanting in Duty to your Majeſty, if we did not beg Leave, on this Occaſion, to lay before you the ſincereſt Wiſhes of our Hearts for a Continuance of every Divine Bleſſing to Yourſelf and Royal Conſort; the Wiſhes of Hearts full of all that Loyalty and Gratitude, which become the moſt faithful Subjects to the beſt of Kings.

Given under our Common Seal, at our Council Chamber, the 12th Day of September, in the Firſt Year of your Majeſty's Reign.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Sheriffs, Citizens, and Commonalty of the City of Norwich, has been preſented to His Majeſty, by Sir Thomas Churchman, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Sheriffs, Citizens, zens, and Commonalty of the City of Norwich, in Common Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Sheriffs, Citizens, and Commonalty of the City of Norwich, beg Leave to approach the Throne with an Address of duteous Gratulation, upon an Occasion that spreads universal Joy throughout your Dominions. Your Subjects, rendered by your Majesty's Virtues the happiest People upon Earth, wished with Ardour to see their Sovereign, already the greatest of Kings, become the happiest of Men, by adding to the Glories of his Reign, and the high Honours of his public Station, the milder Felicities of a private Union. Our Desires are now accomplished. Your Majesty is blest with an illustrious Consort, whose exalted Virtues, amiable Graces, and sincere Attachment to the Protestant Religion, most deservedly engaged your Majesty's Affection and Choice, and will ever secure to Her Royal Person, the profound Veneration and Love of your grateful People. May the Supreme Monarch of the Universe continue to preserve and bless your sacred Lives, and crown your Union with increasing Felicity! And may there spring from it a long Line of Princes, great and good as your Majesty, to rule and protect these Realms to latest Posterity.

Given under our Common Seal, this Seventeenth Day of September, in the Year of our Lord, One thousand seven hundred and sixty-one.

The following Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Bailiffs, Burgesses, and Commonalty of the Borough of New Windsor in the County of Berks, has been presented to His Majesty, by the Right Honourable Lord Vere Beauclerk; being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Bailiffs, Burgesses, and Commonalty of the Borough of New Windsor in the County of Berks.

YOUR Majesty's Affection for your People, led you early to think the Limits of Life too narrow, to diffuse those Blessings to your dutiful Subjects, which warmed your Royal Breast; and therefore took that Step, which Nature and Wisdom alone could point out, to extend them by the Choice of a Queen, personally amiable, and distinguished by singular Endowments, the true Source of human Happiness.

To this deliberate Determination, the present happy Age owes a Mother to their Country; to this, Posterity may be indebted for a long Succession of your Illustrious Progeny; to this happy Union, the Protestant Religion may, by the Blessing of Providence, owe an Illustrious Line of Defenders; and to this too, your Majesty will owe the greatest of human Blessings, a Life virtuously spent, with an affectionate and accomplished Consort.

And, as your Majesty has thus wisely laid the only sure Foundation of a good Life and happy Reign, your Majesty will permit your loyal Subjects to take Part in the universal Joy, and most reverentially to declare how highly acceptable your Choice, and this happy Conclusion of it, is to us.

And now, permit us, Royal Sir, to close our dutiful Congratulations with, Live on, blessed Pair, and make this Nation the Envy of all others, for being the Happiest: We, governed by the best of Kings; and your Majesties, beloved and supported by a Brave and Obedient People.

Given under our Common Seal in our Council-Chamber, this Twelfth Day of September, One thousand seven hundred and sixty one.

The following Address of the Mayor, High Steward, Recorder, Bailiffs, Aldermen, and Capital Burgesses of the Borough of Dorchester, in the County of Dorset, has been presented to His Majesty by the Right Honourable the Earl of Shaftesbury, High Steward of the said Borough, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, High-Steward, Recorder, Bailiffs, Aldermen, and Capital Burgesses of the Borough of Dorchester, in the County of Dorset.

May it please your Majesty,

WHILST your Subjects are enjoying every Happiness that can flow from the Exercise of Regal Virtues, it is but Gratitude in them to rejoice in your Majesty's Happiness, arising from social ones. Nothing was wanting to complete this, but the Possession of a Princess, worthy, in every Light, of a Crown, and of what is more valuable, your Majesty's Affection. Your Majesty's great Object, the Welfare of your People, has been highly considered in making your Choice in a Family eminently distinguished for their Zeal for the Protestant Religion.

The Nation feels (with the most exquisite Sense of Gratitude to her Royal Highness the Princess Dowager) the great Benefits which have before accrued from such a Choice. May they be continued! May the Blessings, which attend this Union, be long, long enjoyed, by your Majesty, and your Royal Consort! And may they be transmitted down to endless Generations, in a great and truly virtuous Posterity, worthy of such Progenitors.

Dated at the Guildhall of the said Borough, the Fourteenth Day of September, One thousand seven hundred and sixty one.

Lisbon, September 2. M. du Gué Lambert, late Commander of the Courageux, died of his Wounds the 25th of last Month, and was attended, at his Burial, by the English and French Officers.

His Serene Highness the young Prince of Beira was christened on Friday the 28th past, by the Names of Joseph-Francis-Xavier-de Paula-Domingos-Antonio-Augustinho-Anostacio; the King and Queen of Portugal being Sponsors.

Hague, Sept. 13. The Head Quarters of the Allied Army were on the 7th Instant at Buhne, and the Position of the Enemy was as follows: Prince Xavier's Reserve encamped between Grene and Eimbeck: The main Body of Broglio's Army between Sulbeck and Her; a large Detachment before its Right, and another before its Left, on the Side of Moringen: Another Corps near Gottingen, and smaller ones between that Place and Munden, to keep open the Communication. Lieutenant General Stainville, with 36 Battalions at Graberstein, fronting the Dymel. Marshal Broglio had been for several Days in Person at Cassel.

In Consequence of the Attack made by the Enemy on the 31st past, upon General Luckner's Corps, and that of General Freytag, the Chasseurs of the Allied Army had been obliged to abandon some of their Posts in the Defiles of the Hartz, but they have since reoccupied them.

Hague, Sept. 15. Since Prince Ferdinand of Brunswick's Return from Hesse into Westphalia, nothing of Consequence has happened between the two Armies. His Serene Highness occupied, still, on the 11th instant, his Camp at Buhne, and his Army extended down the Weser towards Hameln. Several detached Corps of the French Army had before past through the Hartz Mountains, and had got Possession, by their great Superiority, of several considerable Passes. Some Corps of the Allies, under General Luckner, General Freytag, and Colonel Stockhausen, had been forced, after a brave Resistance, to retire farther back; and Prince Ferdinand, in order to secure the Town of Hanover, had directed Lieutenant General Wutgenau, with the Body of Troops under his Orders, to cross the Weser at Grohnde, and to draw near to it; but upon his Serene Highness's March into the Neighbourhood of Cassel, the French General, being apprehensive henſive for his Communication with that Place, was obliged to go in Perſon, with a great Force, to ſecure it; and our lateſt Accounts from Hanover aſſure us, that the Enemy had evacuated the Hartz, and had retired to Seſen.

The Prince of Soubiſe keeps ſtill behind the Lippe; and for Fear of riſking his Communication with Weſel, whilſt the Hereditary Prince is ſo near him, contents himſelf with making Excurſions, with Detachments of Light Troops, to the upper Part of that River. We have no direct News from his Serene Highneſs ſince the 8th inſtant, when his Head Quarters were at Bockum, not far from Hamm.

The Armies in Sileſia had done nothing to the 1ſt of this Month; and the combined Forces of Auſtria and Ruſſia had hitherto found the King of Pruſſia's Poſition too difficult to attempt to drive him out of it.

The Parliament of Paris has conſented to regiſter the French King's Edict, which ſuſpends all further Proceedings againſt the Jeſuits for a Year; but they have limited the Suſpenſion to the 1ſt of April of the next Year, and directed the firſt Preſident to repreſent, in the ſtrongeſt Terms, to the King their Maſter, the ill Conſequences of protecting that Society.

Whitehall, September 19.

Letters from Sir Jeffery Amherſt, dated Albany, Auguſt 13, give an Account, That the Operations againſt the Cherokees, under the Command of Lieutenant Colonel Grant, of the 40th Regiment of Foot, had been very lucky, and that every Thing had ſucceeded without a ſingle Rub, though the Country would have been impenetrable, had it been well defended. Fifteen Towns, and all the Plantations in the Country, have been burnt; above Fourteen Hundred Acres of Corn, Beans, Peaſe, &c. deſtroyed; about 5000 People, including Men, Women, and Children, drove into the Woods and Mountains, where, having nothing to ſubſiſt upon, they muſt either ſtarve, or ſue for Peace. Colonel Grant ſays, That the Provincials have behaved well, as he always expected they would do, and that the Rangers have been very uſeful and alert: They never made a Difficulty, and they ſeem now to deſpiſe the Indians, as much as they were ſuſpected to fear them before. That Major Monypenny has been extremely diligent and attentive, and of great Uſe upon all Occaſions: That the Officers, commanding the ſeveral Corps, have exerted themſelves, and every body has behaved with a proper Spirit. Our Indians have been of great Uſe. Capt. Kennedy has had a great deal of Trouble, and has Merit for taking ſo much Care of them, and for keeping them in ſo good Order. The Upper Chickeſaws are quite a different Species of People from any other Indians: They have behaved remarkably well. If the Province does not reward them, it muſt be done at the Expence of the Crown. Though they have been at War above a Twelve Month, they readily agreed to ſtay with Colonel Grant as long as he pleaſed. They ſaid, they would aſk nothing till the Service was over; but the Preliminary Article was, that when they went Home, they were to truſt to the Colonel only for their Preſents. The Cherokees muſt certainly ſtarve, or come into Terms; and, even in that Caſe, Colonel Grant thinks 'tis hardly in the Power of the Province to ſave them. He propoſed, in a few Days, to ſend to the Great Warrior, and the Little Carpenter, to come and treat of Peace, if they chuſe to ſave their Nation from Deſtruction. Till he receives their Anſwer, he ſhall endeavour to ſave the ſmall Remains of the Lower Towns. In the mean Time, Colonel Grant intends to put Fort Prince George into Repair, and to wait there, or at Ninety-Six, till he receives Orders from Sir Jeffery Amherſt.

Names of the Town in the Middle and Back Settlements, burnt by the Detachment under the Command of Colonel Grant.

AT the Council Chamber Whitehall, the 11th of September, 1761.

By the Lords of His Majeſty's moſt Honourable Privy Council, appointed to conſider of their Majeſties Coronation.

INformation having been received at this Board, that divers Hackney Coachmen and Chairmen have entered into a Combination not to work their Coaches and Chairs on the Day of their Majeſties Coronation, without exorbitant Rates for their Hire: It is this Day ordered by their Lordſhips, that the Commiſſioners for licenſing Hackney Coaches and Chairs do publiſh an Advertizement, requiring all Hackney Coachmen and Chairmen to be out with their Coaches and Chairs (having their Figures placed in the uſual Manner) by Four of the Clock in the Morning of the ſaid Day, in the moſt convenient Stations; and that, unleſs they ſhall produce proper Proofs, when required, of their having faithfully diſcharged their Duty, without making any exorbitant Demands, Demands, they will be proceeded againſt with the utmoſt Severity.

W. Blair.

In Obedience to the Commands of the Lords of His Majeſty's moſt Honourable Privy Council, appointed to conſider of their Majeſties Coronation, We the Commiſſioners, authorized and appointed for regulating and licenſing Hackney Coaches and Chairs, do hereby give Notice to all Hackney Coachmen and Chairmen, that they are required to be out with their Hackney Coaches and Chairs (having their Figures placed in the uſual Manner) by Four of the Clock in the Morning, on the Day of their Majeſties Coronation, in the moſt convenient Stations; and that, unleſs they ſhall produce proper Proofs, when required, of their having faithfully diſcharged their Duty, without making any exorbitant Demands, they will be proceeded againſt with the utmoſt Severity.

WE the Burgermaſter and Senate of the Imperial City of Bremen do hereby make known unto you Harmen Dircks, That whereas the Owners of the Ship named the Anna Roſina, the Command of which was entruſted to you, have duly repreſented to us, that it is of great Conſequence to them, that the Suit, in which they are engaged with you on Account of a Voyage undertaken and performed by you with ſaid Ship to St. Euſtatius, be ſpeedily brought to an End: But as you, inſtead of waiting for the final Determination of ſuch Suit, have found Means to eſcape out of the Priſon wherein you were confined, for unduly with-holding the Bill of Sale of the ſaid Ship, and have fled: And the ſaid Owners having earneſtly requeſted us to have you cited by Authority, we therefore, in our Magiſterial Capacity, in Purſuance of this their reaſonable Requeſt, do hereby Cite, Call upon, and Summon, you the ſaid Harmen Dircks judicially and for Juſtice Sake, and by Virtue of theſe Preſents, to appear on Monday the 2d Day of November next, or, in Caſe no Court of Juſtice ſhould then be held, then to appear on the next Day of Sitting of the Court of Juſtice: Which Term we have peremptorily fixed and appointed for you to appear on in Perſon, at Nine of the Clock in the Morning, at the Senate-houſe here, before the Upper Court of Juſtice, at its uſual Place of Sitting, and there to give ſatisfactory Anſwers to the two Judicial Notices, namely, of the 3d of November, 1760, and 22d of June 1761, and then and there to hear what your adverſe Party ſhall offer, and to abide our Decree thereon. And in Caſe you do not then appear, but contemptuouſly abſent yourſelf, you will be proceeded againſt as contumacious, and, upon further Application of the Owners of ſaid Ship, Sentence will paſs according to Law; of which you are to take Notice. In Witneſs whereof, we the ſaid Burgermaſter and Senate have cauſed our City Seal to be affixed to this Citation. Done in Bremen the 29th of Auguſt, 1761.

WE the Burgermaſter and Senate of the Imperial and Hanſeatick City of Bremen hereby make known to all Men, That the Owners of the Ship named the Anna Roſina have duly informed us, they have Reaſon to fear that the late Commander of ſaid Ship, Harmen Dircks, having found Means to eſcape from his Confinement and fled with the Bill of Sale of ſaid Ship, may thereby intend to obſtruct the free Navigation or Voyage of the ſame, or, by ſome Means or other, undertake ſomething to the Prejudice of the ſaid Ship or its Owners; and therefore have entreated us to declare the ſaid Bill of Sale to be of no Effect, and totally to annul the ſame. We therefore, willing to grant ſo reaſonable a Requeſt, do hereby annul and make void the ſaid original Bill of Sale of the ſaid Ship Anna Roſina, which is dated Bremen the 10th of March 1750, in ſuch Manner, that the ſame ſhall hereafter be of no Uſe or Effect: And therefore, in Caſe the ſame ſhould be produced by the ſaid Harmen Dircks, or any other Perſon, to the Prejudice of the ſaid Ship, or its Owners, do hereby caution all Perſons not to regard it, but to look upon the ſaid original Bill of Sale as a uſeleſs Document of no Signification, and therefore to be rejected. In Witneſs of this Act, the preſiding Burgermaſter of this City, has himſelf ſigned the ſame and affixed the City Seal hereto. Done in Bremen the 29th of Auguſt, 1761.

Dr. ANDERSON's, or The Famous SCOTS PILLS;

ARE faithfully prepared only by JAMES INGLISH Son of DAVID INGLISH, deceased, at the Unicorn, over-against the New Church in the Strand, London; and to prevent Counterfeits from Scotland, as well as in and about London, you are desired to take Notice, That the true Pills have their Boxes sealed on the Top (in Black Wax) with a Lyon Rampant, and Three Mullets Argent, Dr. Anderson's Head betwixt I. I. with his Name round it, and Isabella English underneath the Shield in a Scroll. They are of excellent Use in all Cases where Purging is necessary, and may be taken with Epsom, Tunbridge, or other Medicinal Waters.

DR. JAMES's Powder for FEVERS, and other Inflammatory Distempers, published by Virtue of His MAJESTY's ROYAL LETTERS PATENT, will remove (as has been experienced in many Thousand Cases) any continual acute Fever in a few Hours, though attended with Convulsions, Light-headedness, and the worst Symptoms: But if taken in the Beginning of a Fever, one Dose is generally sufficient to perform a Cure. *

It is likewise a most effectual Remedy for all internal Inflammation, Pleurisies, Quincies, acute Rheumatisms, and the Lowness of Spirits, and Uneasinesses proceeding from slow and latent Fevers, which are generally mistaken for Vapours and Hysterics; it is extremely effectual in the Small-Pox, Measles, and St. Anthony's Fire; and a single Dose remarkably stops the Progress of a Cold, and certainly prevents the ill Consequences arising from that very common Disorder, the Source of almost all Distempers.

This Powder (which is a very safe and pleasant Medicine to take) is sold by J. Newbery at the Bible and Sun in St. Paul's Church Yard, London; and by J. Hoey, jun. in Skinner Row, Dublin; at 2s. 6d. the two Doses, with good Allowance to those who buy it for charitable Uses, or to sell again.

* See a Dissertation on Fevers, and other Inflammatory Distempers, sold at the Places above-mentioned. Price 6d.
